

2011 EEO Public File Report For WCET

The EEO Public File Report is filed in the station's public inspection file pursuant to section 73.2080c(6) of the Federal Communications Commission's (FCC) rules.

During the one year period ending May 31, 2011, the station filed the following full-time vacancies:

Producer, Community & Interactive Media
Senior Manager Membership & Donor Relations
Director, Learning Services
Corporate Development Representative
Web & Interactive Media Associate
Chief Financial Officer

The station interviewed a total of 26 candidates for the six positions. We received 178 applications for the 6 open positions

The following list includes the recruitment sources used during this period and the cumulative numbers of interviewees referred by each:

Recruitment Source	# Interviewees Referred
Cincinnati Enquirer & Career Builder.com	65
CiNWeekly	16
CET Web Page	25
CET Staff Referral	6
CPB Jobs Line	3
Current Newspaper	56
Queen City Jobs & Queen City Jobs Online	5
Craigslist.com	2
	178

Producer, Community & Interactive Media

Candidates Interviewed	3	Source:	Cincinnati Enquirer	1
			CET Staff Referral	2

Senior Manager Membership & Donor Relations

Candidates Interviewed	7		Cincinnati Enquirer	5
			CET Web	1
			CET Staff Referral	1

Director, Learning Services

Candidates Interviewed	4		Cincinnati Enquirer	5
			CET Staff Referral	1
			CPB Jobs Line

Corporate Development Representative

Candidates Interviewed	4		Cincinnati Enquirer	2
			CET Web	1
			CET Staff Referral	1

Web & Interactive Media Associate

Candidates Interviewed	4		Cincinnati Enquirer	2
			CET Web	1
			CET Staff Referral	1

Chief Financial Officer

Candidates Interviewed	4		Cincinnati Enquirer	1
			CET Staff Referral	1
			Current Newspaper	1
			CPB Jobs Line	1

Interns:

During this period CET sponsored an intern from Xavier University. Ms. Megan Askew, an African American student worked on the CET Voices project with Donald Hancock

Community Outreach

On August 31, 2010, Ed Frisa, CET Transmitter Engineer made a presentation to the Television Production class at Xavier University. He spoke about the technical aspects of Digital Television.

On June 1, 2010 David Schiebenzubr, a CET Production Assistant spoke to a class at Greener Elementary School about careers in Television.

On November 23, 2010 Jack Dominic, VP and Station Manager was guest lecturer at a Broadcast Class at the University of Cincinnati, CCM Electronic Media Division.

On April 13, 2011, Jack Dominic, VP and Station Manager was guest lecturer at a Broadcast Class at the University of Cincinnati, CCM Electronic Media Division.

Throughout the period station Staff and Volunteers conducted a total of 26 tours for groups of students and adults.